

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION

Unwanted People: Histories of Race and Displacement in the Americas, by Sarah E. Parker and Jorge Majfud ..... 13

UNITED STATES

1. Industrialization, Deindustrialization, and Immigration in a New England City ..... 21

2. How (Not) to Challenge Racist Violence ..... 35

3. Why “Black Panther” Is Revolutionary, Even Though It Isn’t ..... 39

4. Boston’s Worker Centers in the Shadow of Trump ..... 45

5. Boston’s Black Working Class and the Struggle for Racial and Economic Justice ..... 65

6. The DNA Industry and the Disappearing Indian ..... 87

IMMIGRATION

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 7. The Real Story Behind the “Invasion” of the Children .....   | 97  |
| 8. On the History of Immigration to the United States:An Interview to Aviva Chomsky by Keera Annamaneni ..... | 103 |
| 9. A Central American Drama in Four Acts .....  | 113 |
| 10. America Runs on Undocumented Labor .....  | 123 |
| 11. The Dark History of the “Nation of Immigrants” .....  | 129 |
| 12. Making Sense of the Deportation Debate .....  | 137 |
| 13. Talking Sense about Immigration:Rejecting the President’s Manichaeic Worldview .....                      | 145 |

COLOMBIA

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 14. The Logic of Displacement:Afro-Colombians and the War in Colombia .....  | 155 |
| 15. Afro-Colombia and the Mainland Caribbean .....   | 183 |
| 16. Labor, Environment, and Economic Development:Visions from the Colombian Coal Mines .....                       | 197 |
| 17. Peripheral Landscapes on the Borders of Empire, Nation-State, andExtractivism: Colombia’s Wild Northeast ..... | 227 |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY .....   | 247 |